If you are not the intended recipient, please do not read, copy, use or disclose the contents of this communication to others. Differences between the long and short versions:

In the long version, you have the option of adding the following information:

- direct extension and cell phone numbers
- text reference to future events
- additional Viscom address such as a branch office or home office if this is not identical to the address given in the disclaimer

Design & Set-up

In the new e-mail signature, the fonts, font sizes and colors for the individual parts of the automatic signature are specified. Viscom's social media profiles are also integrated as links.

This means that you can copy the signature from this document, except for the banner, which must be integrated as described below.

The automatic signature includes our changing advertising banner, via which we advertise current topics such as advertising campaigns, trade shows and events, new products, software releases, new brochures, the customer newsletter and videos.

That's why we set up a central folder for the current banner file, so that any new banner will be automatically updated/replaced in the e-mail signature.

Please set up the link to the banner file just once in your signature template:

- 3) Under "File name", insert the link below using the option "Insert" -> "Link to file" (this may take a minute).

- 4) When the image has been inserted, click "OK" to save, and then close the Options window by clicking "OK" again.

Help with incorrect image size of the advertising banner

Sometimes the linked image is displayed in the automatic signature, but not in the correct size. However, it is possible to edit the HTML code in Outlook e-mail signatures:

1. In Outlook, select E-mail from the Options menu. Then press and hold Ctrl and click on Signatures.

2. A window with defined signatures opens. To edit the desired entry, right-click on it and select "Open with" and then select "Notepad".

3. The HTML code is displayed. Find the dimensions and correct them, if necessary, as follows:
Width=490 Height=120
